

Jennifer Suzor

Jennifer has practiced family law in Windsor for over 27 years at all levels of the Court in Ontario. In 2004 she was certified by the Law Society of Upper Canada as a Specialist in Family Law. Now restricting her practice to mediation at Suzor Law and Mediation, she believes mediation should be the first choice for separating families in Ontario. Jennifer is an accredited family mediator and child protection mediator with many years of experience. In 2010 she began to operate the expanded Information and Mediation Program of the Ministry of Attorney General for the County of Essex as the President of Bridging Family Conflict. Jennifer is the President of the Board of Directors of the Ontario Association for Family Mediation and has served on many other charitable boards. She credits her experiences as a mother of four in a blended family as some of her toughest training. Currently Jennifer is interested in furthering the recognition of mediation as a distinct profession.
