

Tracey Lipp

MSW, RSW, Family Group Conference Practitioner, New Ways for Families Coach

Tracey Lipp is a registered Social Worker with over 25 years of experience working in children's mental health, developmental services, child welfare, community development and alternative dispute resolution.

Tracey is a private practitioner and offers individual, couple and family counselling, parent coordination services and assessments for the Office of the Children's Lawyer through her Parent Partner Services. Assisting families, who are experiencing conflict, in finding workable solutions is her passion.

Tracey is also registered as a Family Conferencing Coordinator and Mentor and offers ADR services to Children's Aid Societies through ADR-Link.

Tracey received her Bachelor of Social Work (Honours) from King's University College in 1992. Tracey earned her Masters of Social Work from King's University College in 2011 and proudly received the Mary Lou Karley award for excellence in Social Work practice and leadership.