

Margot Post

Family Group Conferencing Coordinator, Professional/Life Coaching, Certified Parent Educator, Early Childhood Education (ECE)

Margot has over 15 years experience in the field of child welfare. She ran the Family Centered Conferencing Program at Community Justice Initiatives for 3 years where facilitated dialogues and FGDM's were offered. She developed and implemented the Conflict and Communication Coaching Program which is still being utilized by Waterloo Family and Children Services.

Margot enjoys working with families and this is her passion. She believes strongly in family meetings to problem solve and in providing a voice to all. She strives to build strong relationships with families/children, creating an environment of safety and trust. She builds upon each child and family's unique strengths and capabilities so that they may be able to hold conversations that always possess an underlying belief that every situation has possibilities and opportunities. Margot believes in assuming strength over weakness or dependence and in working with families through the process to coach them towards maximizing a collaborative process of change.
