

Paula DeVeto

MSW, RSW, BA, ACCFM (OAFM), CPMED

Paula DeVeto has been practicing as a clinical social worker for the past 24 years and is a Registered Social Worker (OCSWSSW). She holds a Master of Social Work degree from Wilfrid Laurier University (1992), a Bachelor of Arts degree (High Honours) in Sociology with a Concentration in Criminology and Criminal Justice from Carleton University (1990) as well as an Advanced Certificate in Couple and Family Therapy Studies from the University of Guelph (1998).

Paula is an Accredited Family Mediator and Child Protection Mediator (OAFM) and is also trained as a mental health specialist to the Collaborative Law Process.

For the past decade, Paula has been operating a full time private practice in London, Ontario, which specializes in the resolution of family conflict. In addition to her work as a child protection mediator she conducts private mediations primarily focused on parenting, offers individual, marital and family therapy, as well as re-integration counselling and Parenting Coordination services.

Paula is also a longstanding clinical panel member with the Office of the Children's Lawyer and has extensive experience conducting custody and access assessments and providing clinical assists to children's counsel.

Paula has experience working with men, women and youth in the criminal justice system, in children's mental health with youth at risk of out of home placement, and in adult mental health with individuals with severe and persistent mental illness. She also has specialized knowledge and experience assisting children and adults impacted by adoption.