

Guy Hagar

Family Group Conference Practitioner & ODR Practitioner

Guy is a member of the Upper Cayuga Band from Six Nations of the Grand River and has worked within Health Sciences for more than twenty-five years. Guy has received training through The Stitt Feld Handy Group, an affiliate of the University of Windsor Law School, in Alternative Dispute Resolution (Negotiation and Mediation) as well as FGC training through the George Hull Centre and is a member of the ADR Institute of Canada, all of which has provided him with a strong foundation for his work in the field.

Past experience as an Aboriginal Health Advocate, Indigenous Cultural Safety Trainer, Mental Health Worker and Master Suicide Intervention Trainer will aid in his position as a Family Group Conferencing and ODR Practitioner.

Guy strives to be a fair and impartial practitioner and firmly believes that social justice is a responsibility we all hold.
