

Louise Vandenbosch

MSW, RSW, ADR Practitioner, Family Group Conferencing Coordinator, Mentor & Provincial Trainer , OAFM Family mediator, Child Protection Mediator, New Ways for Families Coach

Louise has been practicing Family Group Conferencing since 2004. Louise is active in the FGC community and is the recent past chair of the FGC Ontario Provincial Resource Steering Committee.

Louise is the principal mediator with Wesbrook Mediation Services (www.wesbrook.org). Louise offers both family mediation and Child Protection Mediation in her practice. Louise enjoys working with families and child welfare agency staff to help bring resolution to some challenging situations. Louise is a fair and impartial practitioner who aims to focus on family strengths and provide hope to the situation. Louise has experience working with parents with children aged 0-6, adults and children with developmental disability, adults and children with mental health challenges and families who find themselves in conflict over a custody and access matters and many other challenging family situations. Louise has been a social worker for over 30 years and brings her experience to each unique family situation.

Louise offers New Ways for Families® counselling and is a trainer working with Bill Eddy of the High Conflict Institute.