ROSTER FOR MEDIATION SERVICES

dispute resolution support

Southern First Nations Secretariat

PURPOSE

Conflict is a part of everyday life but it doesn't have to be toxic and hurtful. With our ADR Trained Facilitators we can work with you to resolve a dispute in a manner that helps to restore peace and harmony to a relationship.

SERVICE OVERVIEW

A Roster of ADR Trained Facilitators will provide facilitated, interest based negotiations as a service support to member Nations of SFNS.

SFNS will coordinate and support every requested session and the Mediation Roster.

SERVICE OUTCOME

The Roster and its Facilitators are not a decision-making body. Each facilitated dispute resolution session will usually result in a nonbinding decision left to the discretion of the parties of the session. Each session is voluntary therefore the parties will be responsible to uphold their agreed upon resolution.

HOW IT WORKS

"I always thought conflict just had to get worse before it got better. Now I know there is a way for me to protect relationships and resolve a conflict and feel good about how I handled myself and others!" MW

WHY THIS HELPS

AFFORDABILITY: Free Service.

TRUST: Each session is conducted by an impartial, third party facilitator.

SAFE: Every session is confidential.

VOLUNTARY: It is up to you how far you want to go and when to stop.

RESULTS: Each resolution is decided upon by the parties in the conflict.

TIMELY: Alternative to costly and lengthy court processes.

DISCLAIMER

While we strive to accommodate all requests for service it is imperative to understand that not all issues are suitable for facilitated conflict resolution services.
