14. Further points of interest:

1. It is important that you keep ADR-Link apprised of any changes to your availability to conduct Child Protection ADR work annually. (Such as changes in availability due to vacation, illness, training or certification changes, etc.)
2. It is imperative that you maintain your own liability insurance coverage and that you provide ADR-LINK with confirmation of that coverage annually.
3. Please keep ADR-LINK informed of any complaints/concerns made against you while acting in the role of an ADR Practitioner (CPM, FGC, ODR Practitioner), as well as the outcome of the complaint.
4. Please provide proof of qualifications, confirmation of your liability insurance, a Police Vulnerable Screening Check, and your resume.
5. Your signature below confirms you wish to be contacted by ADR-LINK to arrange an interview as part of the next step in the application process.

15. Please note: you will be contacted only when ADR-LINK is seeking applicants.

Your signature below confirms that you understand the above information and that you assume liability arising from your own Child Protection ADR practice with clients and do not hold the ADR-Link connector agency responsible in any way. It is also important that you and your ADR clients are aware of the following disclaimer:

ADR-LINK connects parties in dispute with an independent Child Protection Mediation Practitioner, Family Group Conference Practitioner or ODR/Indigenous Approach Practitioner. All mediators are certified in child protection mediation by the Ontario Association for Family Mediation and listed on its roster, all Family Group Conference coordinators have been trained and mentored through the George Hull Centre and are listed on its roster, and all ODR/Indigenous Approach Practitioners are qualified to practice. By participating in the ADR-LINK service, you agree to hold harmless ADR-LINK and London Family Court Clinic for any and all claims, actions, suits, etc. brought against ADR-LINK directly or indirectly.
